

EMPLOYEE CONFIDENTIALITY AND INVENTIONS ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

This Employee Confidentiality and Inventions Assignment Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of January, 15, 2022 by and between UrbanWind Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 1234 Innovation Drive, Suite 500, San Francisco, CA 94105 (the "Company"), and Rachel Chen ("Employee").

In consideration of Employee's employment or continued employment by the Company and the compensation paid to Employee by the Company, the parties agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information

a. Definition: "Confidential Information" means any Company proprietary information, technical data, trade secrets or know-how, including, but not limited to, research, product plans, products, services, customers, customer lists, markets, software, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, marketing, finances or other business information disclosed to Employee by the Company either directly or indirectly in writing, orally or by drawings or observation of parts or equipment.

b. Non-Use and Non-Disclosure: Employee agrees not to use any Confidential Information for any purpose outside the scope of Employee's work for the Company and not to disclose Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of an authorized Company officer.

c. Former Employer Information: Employee agrees not to improperly use or disclose any proprietary information or trade secrets of any former or concurrent employer or other person or entity.

2. Inventions

a. Assignment of Inventions: Employee agrees to assign to the Company all right, title, and interest in and to any and all inventions, original works of authorship, developments, concepts, improvements, designs, discoveries, ideas, trademarks or trade secrets, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar laws, which Employee may solely or jointly conceive or develop or reduce to practice, or cause to be conceived or developed or reduced to practice, during the period of time Employee is in the employ of the Company (collectively referred to as "Inventions").

b. Exception to Assignments: This Agreement does not apply to an Invention which qualifies fully as a non-assignable Invention under Section 2870 of the California Labor Code.

3. Returning Company Documents: Upon separation from employment with the Company or on demand by the Company during employment, Employee will immediately deliver to the Company all documents, notes, drawings, specifications, computer software, data and other materials of any nature pertaining to Employee's work with the Company, and will not take or keep in Employee's possession any of the foregoing or any reproduction of any of the foregoing.

4. Notification of New Employer: In the event that Employee leaves the employ of the Company, Employee hereby grants consent to notification by the Company to Employee's new employer about Employee's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

5. Solicitation of Employees: Employee agrees that for a period of twelve (12) months immediately following the termination of Employee's relationship with the Company for any reason, Employee shall not either directly or indirectly solicit, induce, recruit or encourage any of the Company's employees to leave their employment.

6. General Provisions

a. Governing Law: This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without giving effect to its conflicts of law principles.

b. Entire Agreement: This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding between the Company and Employee relating to the subject matter herein and supersedes all prior discussions between them.

c. Amendment: This Agreement may not be modified except by a written agreement signed by the Company and Employee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.
