Mr. Blackwood highlighted the strong Q4 performance, noting that it exceeded projections and resulted in a profitable year overall. The board discussed the positive trajectory and its implications for 2024 growth plans.

4. Q1 2024 Preliminary Results

Mr. Blackwood provided a preliminary update on Q1 2024 performance, indicating that the company is on track to meet or exceed Q1 revenue projections of $1,800,000. The current cash position was reported as approximately $11,500,000.

5. Product Development and Commercial Update

Dr. Rachel Chen and Ethan Nakamura reported on product development and commercial progress:

- The new residential turbine model has completed testing and is ready for market launch in Q2
- Fifteen new commercial installations were completed in Q1, bringing the total to 20
- Performance data continues to show consistent results, with the AI-driven optimization system improving efficiency by an additional 5%
- The R&D team has initiated development on a next-generation, larger-scale turbine for industrial applications

6. Marketing and Business Development Update

Sarah Johnson presented updates on marketing and business development:

- The company's presence at CES 2024 generated significant media coverage and new business leads
- A partnership with a major European urban planning firm has been finalized, marking UrbanWind's first step into the European market
- The sales pipeline has grown to $12M in potential contracts for 2024
- A new marketing campaign focused on the residential turbine is ready for launch alongside the product in Q2

7. Operational Scaling and International Expansion

Elena Rodriguez led a discussion on operational scaling and international expansion plans:

- Manufacturing capacity has been increased to meet projected demand for both commercial and residential models
- A European office is planned to open in Amsterdam in Q3 2024 to support expansion efforts

- The board reviewed and approved plans for key hires in Europe and additional engineering staff in the US

8. ESG Initiatives

Jennifer Wu, as chair of the newly formed ESG Committee, presented the company's first ESG report and outlined initiatives for 2024, including:

- Setting targets for carbon-neutral operations by 2026
- Implementing a supplier code of conduct with environmental and labor standards
- Establishing a grant program for clean energy education in underserved communities

The board reviewed and approved the ESG initiatives.

9. Financial Planning

Marcus Blackwood led a discussion on financial planning:

- The board reviewed updated financial projections for 2024, with expected revenues of $10M (up from the previously approved $8M) and expenses of $8M
- Preliminary discussions were held regarding the potential Series B funding round in Q4 2024, with a target raise of $30M to $50M

10. Other Business

- Dr. Rachel Chen provided an update on the Stanford University research partnership, reporting promising results in advanced materials for turbine blades
- The board discussed the formation of a Scientific Advisory Board to guide long-term R&D efforts

11. Next Meeting

The next board meeting was scheduled for June 20, 2024.

12. Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:00 PM.
